Sales Tax Big One as Usual; End of Smallpox

The State of Arkansas had General Revenue Fund collections of $24,817,131 this November—a gain of nearly one-third over November 1970's total of $17,686,864.

The major flaw in an otherwise optimistic report from the Finance and Administration Department was the fact that the largest increase—as usual—was shown in sales tax collections. For November a year ago sales tax produced $8,260,022, but the total rose to $10,952,731 this November.

Retail sales generally throughout the state were up, which was helpful, but the bulk of the increase came from extension of sales tax to services and labor charges. This is an old story, of course. It's tough raising most taxes in areas which are fortified by powerful lobbies—but there is no lobby to defend the common people against sales tax hikes and extensions.

This may be O.K. today, but Arkansas' dangerous dependence on sales tax financing remains to be tested some evil day when sales decline. This is something to remember every time the legislature meets.

Smallpox, once the dreaded scourge of nations, has disappeared from the United States. There hasn't been a documented case since 1949. Accordingly, the U.S. Public Health Service has dropped its requirement that all Americans be vaccinated.

The only exception is where a traveler returns from at least 14 days' visit in a handful of small countries where the disease still exists. He then has to be vaccinated.

The conquest of smallpox is one of mankind's greatest medical achievements. As a boy I remember seeing scores of faces that had been disfigured by smallpox—families which had resisted vaccination out of fear or stubbornness.

There was a time when smallpox ravaged both Europe and America, emptying the cities as the plague spread. But vaccine stopped smallpox cold.

Pakistan Jets Rip Airports

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Indian government declared a national emergency today following Pakistani air raids on four northwestern Indian airports.

LONDON (AP) — International airlines in London said today they have been banned from flying to West Pakistan and the Indian cities of New Delhi and Calcutta.

But officials were not sure whether the Pakistani ban on overflying also included East Pakistan, or whether any other Indian cities had sealed off their airspace.

The government-owned Pakistan International Airlines said it had learned from its Karachi office that overflying West Pakistan was banned.

Pakistani warplanes attacked three airfields in western India today, an Indian spokesman reported. The Indian capital, New Delhi, went dark in an unexpected air raid warning but there was no sign of an attack.

The Indian spokesman said one Pakistani air attack was against Srinagar, capital of Kashmir, a territory long in dispute between Indian and Pakistan.

The other air attacks were carried out against Amritsar in western Punjab and at Pathankot, also in Punjab, the spokesman reported.

He added that the attacks were under way as he spoke and had no details of them.

Sirens sounded in New Delhi and air raid wardens ran from house to house warning residents to take cover.

"This is no practice drill, ladies and gentlemen," the spokesman told reporters.

LITTER GULPER demonstrates clean-up power on the Capitol lawn in Washington. Looking a little like a crane which met with an accident, the droopy aluminum boom mounted on a conventional truck scoops up debris and feeds it into bags. Designed to handle bottles, cans, cigarette packages and the other small items which loom large in the litter pickup picture, the unit is said to be capable of reducing pickup costs for maintenance departments by 40 per cent.

Butz New Secretary of Agriculture

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey predicts the commotion around the losing fight to prevent Earl L. Butz from becoming secretary of agriculture will help pry loose impounded federal funds and boost farm income by up to a billion dollars.

President Nixon made his own prediction after the Senate approved Butz 51-44 Thursday and said the 62-year-old educator will be a better agriculture secretary because of the stiff fight it took to confirm him.

Democrats, who came close to making the Butz confirmation battle the third defeat of a presidential Cabinet nomination in this century, warned Butz his troubles aren't over if he ignores their concern for the family farmer.

Speaking moments before the Butz roll call began, Humphrey said the bitter debate has focused public attention on the plight of agriculture and forced the hand of the Nixon administration.

"They are going to have to dip into the Treasury now to help the American farmer," Humphrey said and added: "And let this prediction be on this record:

"That after Dr. Butz is confirmed, we will see from the Treasury of the United States, for the first time, money being released to help the farmer. This Senate debate has been worth a billion dollars in farm income."

"I think it has been well worth the effort."

The American farmer, especially in the Midwest is caught in a three-way squeeze between rising costs, a huge feed-grain surplus, and plummeting prices.

Capitol Hill observers have predicted the administration must take some steps to improve the situation before the 1972 elections or face severe setbacks in key farm-belt states.

Butz was sworn in as secretary five hours after the Senate vote and he told newsmen he would do something immediately—he didn't say what—to improve corn prices now lower than 90-cents a bushel in some areas.

Cambodian Troops in Full Retreat

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government sent a squadron of helicopters to Cambodia today to help extricate retreating Cambodian forces on the northeastern front.

Military sources in Saigon said 24 to 30 helicopters plus six to eight escorting gunships were airlifting the Cambodians in their withdrawal to safer defensive positions.

The Cambodians, under heavy North Vietnamese attacks, abandoned two towns this week in the worst setback for the Phnom Penh government in the 20 months of the Cambodian war.

The Cambodian command tried to play down the reverse, issuing a terse communique which said that its forces had withdrawn from the towns of Baray and Kompong Thomar to "reorganize defensive positions in order to continue effectively the fight against North Vietnamese and Viet Cong aggressors."

Baray is 60 miles northeast of Phnom Penh and Kompong Thomar is six miles north of Baray.

A Cambodian spokesman, Lt. Col. An Rong, said new defensive positions were being set up around the town of Taing Krasaon on Highway 6, some 70 miles northeast of Phnom Penh, at three hill positions a few miles farther north and at the provincial capital of Kompong Thom, 80 miles northeast of Phnom Penh.

It was to break a 15-month siege of Kompong Thom that the Cambodians launched a 20,000-man operation last Aug. 19 along Highway 6.

With the government forces strung out over a 30-mile stretch of the highway, the North Vietnamese 9th Division launched heavy attacks this week to wreck the Cambodian offensive and force the current pullback and regrouping.

Am Rong said it was still not known how many Cambodian soldiers were killed, wounded or missing in this week's defeat.

The colonel claimed that most of the forces left Baray and Kompong Thomar in good order after destroying equipment they could not carry with them.

Adopts Mother in Order to Board Plane

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An 11-year-old boy flew to Houston this week by "adopting" another mother," airline officials say.

"See her? She's my mother," Serramone Manuel told the stewardess as he boarded a National Airlines plane in Los Angeles International Airport.

"Your ain't no son of mine," said the startled woman in front of him.

"She always says that," Serramone told the stewardess as he took his seat.

That got him to Houston. But it didn't work when he tried to reboard the plane for New Orleans by using the same routine, airline officials said.

Serramone couldn't produce a ticket as requested by the stewardess after exclaiming to the man ahead of him: "He's my grandfather."

Taken into police custody and later sent home, Serramone remarked, "Flying is fun when you're young." The boy's trip was disclosed by the airline Thursday.

Serramone's mother said he had succeeded once before in his ruse to board a plane—a flight to San Francisco.

Senate Votes to Exempt Media

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., voted Wednesday in favor of an amendment to the economic controls bill exempting from wage-price controls newspapers, broadcasting and magazines, and their employees. The measure passed 50-36.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., voted against the amendment.

Judge Disturbed by Punishment of Inmates

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley indicated Thursday he was disturbed that two Arkansas prison inmates who testified last month in hearings concerning prison conditions may have been punished by prison officials for their testimony.

Henley heard a report Wednesday that Harold D. Evans, a Tucker Intermediate Reformatory inmate who testified Nov. 29 had been demoted from trusty to a job washing pots and pans in the prison kitchen. Thursday, Henley learned that Jesse Terry, a black inmate at Cummins Prison Farm, had been accused Nov. 21 of cursing a guard and had been sentenced to punitive isolation Nov. 29. Terry also had testified before Henley in November.

Henley is conducting the hearings in U.S. District Court to determine what progress had been made in bringing the state prisons up to constitutional standards.

Report Indicates More Persons Working But Jobless Rate Climbs

Wholesale Prices Rise in November

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale prices rose one-tenth of one per cent last month before the freeze ended, entirely due to a rise in farm products not subject to government control, the government said today.

The closely watched industrial commodities index actually decreased slightly but wholesale prices of consumer finished goods, closely comparable to those that make up a Consumer Price Index, rose two-tenths of one per cent.

The over-all rise of one-tenth of one per cent, which the Bureau of Labor Statistics said was unchanged when adjusted for seasonal variations, brings the whole price index to 114.5 per cent of 1967 levels, which is 3.2 per cent higher than November of last year.

This means that a cross-section of goods that cost $10 at wholesale in 1967 cost $11.45 last month.

The rise in wholesale prices follows declines of three-tenths of one per cent in September and one-tenth of one per cent in October, figured on an unadjusted basis. When corrected for seasonal fluctuations, wholesale prices declined four-tenths of one per cent in September but rose one-tenth of one per cent in October.

The industrial commodities index, considered a key measure of inflationary pressure, decreased one-tenth of one per cent on an unadjusted basis, but showed no change when corrected for normal seasonal variations.

On an unadjusted basis, farm products rose eight-tenths of one per cent, the bureau said. This group almost exactly coincides with raw agricultural products which were exempt from price controls during the freeze.

The bureau said practically all of the over-all increase in wholesale prices was due to increases for raw agricultural commodities.

It also said that prices used to calculate the November Wholesale Price Index were gathered entirely before the freeze ended at 12:01 a.m., Nov. 14, and so do not show the effect of what administration officials say may turn out to be a bulge of price increases following the loosening of controls.

Schedule for Free Measles Vaccinations

On Thursday, December 7, Hempstead County will conduct special measles immunization clinics at all elementary schools within the county. The vaccine for both kinds of measles will be given free of charge at these clinics. Both types of measles vaccine have proven to be safe and effective, causing little if any discomfort in most children.

Rubella, or 3-day measles, is usually a mild illness in children, but if an expectant mother gets the disease, it can cause a baby to be born blind, deaf, crippled or with other severe birth defects.

Regular measles, of course, can cause Pneumonia, brain damage, eye and ear infections, or death.

The vaccine will be given by jet injector equipment, which does not involve the use of a needle. The clinics will be conducted by the State Board of Health, County Health Department, Local Schools, and other volunteer workers. All children between the ages of one year and the 11th birthday will be eligible to receive either of the two shots. Children who have had shots for both kinds of measles do not have to attend these clinics. Parents or guardians of children not in school are urged to bring their children to the clinic that is the most convenient.

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The unemployment rate jumped back up to 6 per cent in November even as the number of workers rose to a record high of 80 million, the government said today.

While total employment rose, many young adults lost their jobs, helping push up the number of job seekers to 4.8 million.

This is an increase of 210,000, seasonally adjusted, the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

There were unemployment increases in virtually every category except for nonwhites, which declined markedly to 9.3 per cent from October's eight-year high of 10.7 per cent.

The rate for teen-agers was unchanged at 17.0 per cent, the rate for adult men rose from 4.3 per cent to 4.4 per cent, for adult women from 5.5 per cent to 5.8 per cent, for married men from 3.0 per cent to 3.4 per cent and for full-time workers from 5.4 per cent to 5.8 per cent, the bureau said.

The rate for Vietnam veterans, which had dropped substantially in October to 7.0 per cent returned to its old level of 8.2 per cent.

The over-all unemployment rate has hovered around 6 per cent for a year. Last month it dropped 5.8 per cent.

The bureau also reported that average hourly earnings for rank and file workers declined two pennies last month to $3.47. This is still an increase of 18 cents, or 5.5 per cent over a year ago.

Average weekly earnings last month were down 74 cents to $128.74, which is $7.67 or 6.3 per cent above a year ago. Latest inflation figures show that prices have risen 3.8 per cent in the 12 months ending last October.

The bureau stressed that while the ratio of job seekers to job holders has remained roughly constant for a year, the total number of job holders has risen substantially since this summer.

It said the November increase in unemployment occurred almost entirely among full-time workers, mainly young adults who lost their jobs, rather than those seeking jobs for the first time or re-entering the labor force.

White workers accounted for all the November increases in unemployment, the bureau said. Their unemployment rate rose from 5.3 per cent to 5.7 per cent while the rate for blacks dropped to 9.3 per cent, the bureau said.

Victory for Nixon on Campaign Financing

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill cutting taxes $15.8 billion over the next three years and postponing beyond 1972 the hard-fought issue of tax financing for presidential campaigns apparently is on its way to enactment.

A Senate-House conference finished fashioning the measure Thursday, making a deep concession to President Nixon's opposition—backed by a veto threat—to the dollar checkoff campaign financing feature.

The White House strongly implied Nixon would sign the bill, but reserved the right to seek repeal or some other means to prevent the campaign-checkoff provision from going into effect.

The provision would allow individuals to contribute $1 to a presidential campaign fund by checking a box on their income tax returns.

The conference committee bill would give Nixon essentially what he sought in tax changes designed to stimulate the economy.

But it is a blow to Democrats who hope that the checkoff plan they devised could yield their deficit-plagued party $20.4 million for the 1972 campaign.

The conference voted to postpone the checkoff until 1976. And even for future elections the actual disbursing of the funds would require appropriation legislation by Congress, which could be subject to presidential veto.

For individuals, the bill would mean an extra $25 personal exemption this year, an extra $50 next year.

For low-income persons, the special minimum deduction would be boosted next year from $1,000 to $1,300.

The excise tax on automobiles and light trucks would be repealed, an average saving of $200 for car buyers and a stimulus to the big-employing automobile industry.

Industry generally would benefit from a revived investment credit, permitting a 7 per cent tax writeoff for spending on productive equipment.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee offered the compromise on campaign checkoff.

Mills told newsmen afterward he was not convinced the House would pass the bill in its initial form and was convinced Nixon would veto it.

Housewives in Chile Clash With Police

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Antigovernment demonstrators, including a housewives' brigade, clashed with riot police in the streets of Santiago for the second straight night Thursday.

Police used tear gas to disperse one group of women banging pots and pans about four blocks from the lodgings of visiting Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro. He wasn't there at the time.

Other protesters in the city's well-to-do "upper district" burned automobile tires, lit bonfires and joined in horn-blasting motorcades that blocked traffic.

Dozens were arrested, but the exact number was not disclosed.

During the day police had skirmished with anti-Marxist youths demonstrating in defiance of a state of emergency decreed by Marxist President Salvador Allende.

Allende defended his regime at a farewell rally for Castro, who ends his three-week state visit Saturday. The president vowed that "only riddling me with bullets will stop me from completing my program for the people." He referred to the 5,000 women who marched downtown Wednesday night, touching off the disorders, as "the most rancid bourgeois."

The president said police were ordered to use tear gas against the women because they were accompanied by young men in hard hats carrying sticks and rocks. He did not mention the young leftists who stoned the women.

Shortly after daybreak, Allende declared the state of emergency, which allows arrests without warrants and invokes news censorship. All demonstrations were banned.

Two opposition radio stations were shut down on charges that they broadcast "tendentious and alarming" reports of the demonstrations.

Interior Minister Jose Toha claimed in a broadcast that the violence was part of an "orchestrated, seditious plan" to destroy the government. He did not say who was behind the alleged plan.

Egypt Wants UN to Demand Withdrawal

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. diplomats expect Egypt, in the Middle East debate starting today, to ask the General Assembly to demand that Israel withdraw from all Egyptian territory seized in the 1967 war.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad was to open the debate this afternoon with a 45-minute speech. Diplomatic sources said his main objective probably would be an assembly demand that Israel comply with the proposals presented last February by Gunnar Jarring, the special U.N. envoy for the Middle East.

In an effort to lay the groundwork for peace negotiations, Jarring sought simultaneous pledges from Israel that it would withdraw from all Egyptian land and from Egypt that it would enter a peace agreement with the Israelis.

Egypt agreed, but Israel refused, and Jarring's attempt to hold indirect peace negotiations with himself as go-between broke down.

The Swedish ambassador returned to New York Sunday from his regular post at Moscow and since then has talked with Riad and Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah.

The Middle East debate was scheduled to begin Thursday but was postponed at Egypt's request so a group of African foreign ministers could report on recent visits to Egypt and Israel by four African heads of state.

Presidents Leopold Senghor of Senegal, Ahmadou Ahidjo of Cameroon, Yakubu Gowon of Nigeria and Joseph Mobutu of Zaire were sent as mediators by the Organization of African Unity.

Reports from Cairo said the African presidents favor a revival of Jarring's mission.

Unity Baptist Holds Mission Conference

"Operation Outreach" will be the theme of a mission conference to be held at the Unity Baptist Church beginning Friday, December 3, at 7:00 p.m., with services also on Saturday night at 7:00 p.m. Sunday services begin at 9:45 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.

There will be special singing at each service and Saturday night the Church Choir will present a challenging mission cantata entitled "The Greatest Story Yet Untold", directed by Bob Hand.

Principal speakers for the conference will be the Paul L. Bearfield family. Brother Bearfield is a native of Arkansas and has been serving as a missionary in Formosa since 1967. Another special guest on Friday night will be Brother Gene McCann, missionary to Mexico. He will tell of his experiences in that country.

Pastor Gordon Renshaw and the Unity Baptist Church extend a cordial invitation.

Plane Crashes in Atlantic

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A Navy jet plane which went off course near Mobile, Ala., crashed into the Atlantic Ocean about 250 miles east of Norfolk with its pilot apparently unconscious, the Navy says.

Lt. Thomas E. Conlon, 25, of Jacksonville, Fla., made no attempt to eject from the plane, a spokesman for the Atlantic Fleet Naval Air Force said.

The plane, an A7E Corsair, was on a flight Thursday from Jacksonville to Mobile, Ala., and then to Atlanta, Ga., the Navy said, and was then to return to its home base, Cecil Field Naval Air Station in Jacksonville.

Connally Is Optimistic on Money Crisis

By MIKE SHANAHAN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury Secretary John Connally says he is generally optimistic there will be some settlement to the world's economic crisis by the end of 1971.

Connally returned Thursday from high-level financial discussions in Rome with America's major trading partners and told a plane-side news conference:

"There's hope that we can settle it before the end of the year."

But then he cautioned: "I do not want to raise false hopes."

In any case, the Treasury secretary said "a very large step" was taken by the United States at the meeting of the Group of Ten financial powers.

"I think we are making progress," he said striking a more optimistic tone than he ever has about finding a value for the American dollar that the non-Communist world can live with.

Reports of American plans to devalue the dollar swept through Europe Thursday following the end of the Rome meeting. That set off a rush of dollar-selling.

Connally said the large step he referred to was "an over-all 11 per cent realignment which represents a swing of about $9 billion" in U.S. exports compared with imports. U.S. negotiators at the Rome talks had been talking about a $13 billion figure, he said.

The Group of Ten meetings are scheduled to resume in Washington Dec. 17-18.

In domestic economic news, the Pay Board gave a mild slap of the hand to a panel appointed by President Nixon to hold down the pace of wage increases in the construction industry.

The board suspended temporarily authority of the Construction Industry Stabilization Committee to approve construction-union contracts. The committee had approved a series of pacts far above the 5.5 per cent guideline set by the Pay Board.

In Dayton, Ohio, a union official said agreement by a union local to give up two pay raises had nothing to do with Phase 2, as indicated by a congratulatory telegram from Pay Board Chairman George Boldt.

Instead, International Union of Electrical Workers President Paul Jennings said the decision was made "because those people thought they were faced with the threat of a plant shutdown."

In Washington, the Price Commission said coal companies should review their requests for price hikes in light of the commission's decision not to permit expensive wage increases to be passed completely through to consumers.

And in another of a series of optimistic economic indicators, the Federal Reserve Board reported that consumer installment credit increased in October by $924 million, the second largest monthly increase in three years.

Obituaries

MRS. MARY HAMM HOLLIS

Mrs. Mary Hamm Hollis, 61, died in a local hospital Thursday night. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Glenn Hollis of Hope; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Tarpley of Hope, and Mrs. Brenda Hamm Byers of Little Rock; five brothers, Lonnie Pate and Rance Pate of Detroit, Garland Pate and Charles Pate of Hope and Vernon Pate of Texarkana; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin Fortune of Nacogdoches, Texas, and Mrs. Ray Zeller of Detroit.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Herndon Chapel with the Reverend Jerry Westmoreland officiating. Burial will be at Memory Gardens.

The agreement was discussed between Soviet and American scientists during the past few days in Moscow. It was the third session between specialists of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Soviet Academy of Sciences.

Jack Techn, a science attaché at the U.S. Embassy, said the scientists released the following statement at the close of their conference:

"The main purpose of this third working session was to discuss the technical details of (space) hardware compatibility and to discuss a joint American-Soviet space mission. It is intended to sign a final agreement within two months. Details will not be given out until then."

Secretary Vivian Alford gave a financial report and reported over 600 memberships for 1972. Warren Plyler gave an insurance report. Robert Vandiver is in charge of the January meeting and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reese will prepare a mulligan.

Thornton Refuses to Comment on Other Officials

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Ray Thornton said Thursday that he did not intend to make any comments on the way other elected officials handled their affairs, but that he would point out if they are doing anything illegally.

Thornton's remark came in response to questions submitted to him by the Arkansas Outlook, the state Republican publication, about the propriety of Land Commissioner Sam Jones employing relatives in his office and Jones' lumber company selling to county governments.

"It is not my authority nor do I intend to make any comment on the way other elected officials handle their own business," he said.

Thornton suggested, however, that he did not condone state officials either having relatives on the payroll or holding outside business interests while serving in public office.

In a recent article, Outlook said that since 1967 Jones' wife, daughter and stepdaughter had been on the land commissioner's payroll at one time or another. The Outlook also said that Jones' lumber company had sold to at least four counties.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., introduced legislation Thursday aimed at the overhaul of the nation's penal system.

The senator's bill is largely the work of Pros. Atty. Sam Weems of Des Arc.

The bill would authorize an 18-member presidential study commission to recommend standards for federal, state and local correctional programs and institutions and to establish minimum standards for accreditation of these institutions.

Property Tax Senate Group Has Power to May Become Inspect Income Tax Records Major Issue

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — As the campaign season nears, President Nixon is moving to build a major national issue out of the growing public unhappiness over rising local taxes—especially property taxes.

White House political advisers generally agree that the economy and world affairs, including the Vietnam war, now rank as the top issues in the 1972 presidential campaign.

But several strategists said in interviews that the question of local taxes is a "sleeping issue"—one that they said Democrats have largely ignored.

Nixon raised the issue himself Thursday before flying south for a working weekend at the Florida White House. He told the White House Conference on Aging that he is preparing "specific proposals to ease the crushing burden of property taxes for older Americans, and all other Americans."

He didn't elaborate, but said "the time has come to stop talking about the impact of property taxes on older Americans and to act in their behalf, and in behalf of other citizens in similar circumstances."

It is in the white, middle class suburbs that Republican strategists see the greatest potential for political gain by cultivating the issue.

"People have moved away from the cities to the suburbs to get away from high property taxes," one administration official said, "but now the high taxes are catching up with them."

The problem, this official added, is finding a way to convert what basically is a local issue into one that fits into the GOP's national campaign portfolio.

By GREGG HERRINGTON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Commerce Committee has moved into the criminal investigation field with a powerful new weapon—presidential authority to inspect Americans' income-tax records.

Chairman Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said his investigators will use their new power to ferret out organized crime's impact on interstate commerce with immediate emphasis on extortion in the detergent industry.

It was Executive Order No. 11624, signed by President Nixon on Oct. 12, that gave Magnuson's committee authority to inspect "any income, excess profits, estate, gift or excise tax return for the years 1939-72 inclusive."

Magnuson's panel thus became at least the seventh congressional committee allowed access to Internal Revenue Service records.

The Senate Finance Committee, House Ways and Means and procurement, not just individual overruns.

Stennis said he is concerned with "geometric" increases in the cost of weapons, and, in effect, whether the nation will be able to get the best bang for the buck.

If the cost increases are "not sharply reversed, then even significant increases in the Defense budget may not insure the force levels required for our national security," Stennis said.

"It seems absolutely clear to me that we reduce and even endanger our national security by developing and procuring costly and ineffective weapon systems."

"If the weapons we develop are so costly that we cannot afford enough of them, and if they are so technically complex that they are unreliable and difficult to maintain, we have done the nation a disservice by developing and procuring them," he said.

Also scheduled to testify Friday were Gilbert Fitzhugh, the chairman of the President's Blue Ribbon Defense Panel, and Dr. John S. Foster Jr., director of Defense Research and Engineering.

Committee and the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation have standing authority to send their investigators to IRS headquarters for a look at any U.S. taxpayer's records.

About a half-dozen additional House and Senate Committees—now including the Commerce panel—do not have permanent-access privilege but have asked for and received presidential permission, which is good for up to two years.

But governmental rights to income tax returns don't end in Congress or even in Washington.

Several other federal agencies are allowed to look through IRS records, including the Commerce Department, Federal Trade Commission, Justice Department, the Renegotiation Board and the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

In addition, any governor or any state or local tax official may inspect IRS records.

"There's nothing all that unusual about it in investigative work," said Donald Gray, chief investigator on the Senate Commerce Committee's new organized-crime fighting unit.

"We have reason to believe the IRS has collected much information over the years" the committee might be able to use in its investigation, he said.

Magnuson said Gray and his men will be checking returns of taxpayers who have figured in the panel's investigation of alleged extortion by detergent manufacturers whose product is packaged under various local labels or store brands.

Gray said no congressional committee can get a look at an individual's returns unless the full committee has approved the investigation of that person.

Says Weapons Costly and Some Ineffective

By JOHN LENGEI
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Stennis, long a staunch supporter of the Pentagon, said today ineffective and costly guns "reduce and even endanger our national security."

In a statement opening a week of hearings examining how the military obtains its weaponry, the chairman of the Armed Services Committee said he wants to know "what sort of reforms in the process will give us a better product."

The panel will study the reasons for soaring costs of F14 and C5A aircraft along with the jamming of M16 rifles in combat.

"The discussion of weapons systems in the Congress has seemed to me to be sadly deficient in its understanding of process and procedures."

"It's almost as if we attempted to understand fundamental problems of law, order and justice by focusing entirely on specific defendants and whether or not they were innocent or guilty as charged," he said.

The Mississippi Democrat said the attention will be on all facets of weapons development

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Flip Wilson, whose variety hour was among the few survivors in that category this season, usually brightens Thursday nights with a sharp and distinctive comedy show. On the occasional night when it is off form, it is a shambles.

This was not Flip's happiest week. The guest stars—Phyllis Diller, Tony Randall and Billy Eckstine—are certainly pros, but as a group they didn't blend well together or with Flip's style. The sketches were pretty much disaster areas—a spoof of a television kiddy show with Captain Greedy exhorting the children to nag parents into buying the sponsors' products plus another spoof of "Hell's Angels," but without much real wit. And, with such frequent exposure, even Flip's Geraldine is getting to be a bit of a bore.

Still, among the three shows competing on the networks at the same time, the Wilson hour is certainly the best bet.

"Longstreet" on ABC may have a tougher struggle now that NBC's "Ironside" has been moved into competition. Both are detective series and each has a handicapped sleuth—Chief Ironside in a wheelchair and Mike Longstreet is blind.

One of the most interesting aspects of the ABC series is watching Longstreet operate despite his lack of sight. There are small bits scattered through the hour revealing his sensitivity to sound, smell and touch. James Franciscus is as convincing playing a sightless man as Raymond Burr is as a paralytic.

"Owen Marshall: Counselor-at-Law," which follows Longstreet, is really a more thoughtfully scripted action show. Arthur Hill, in the title role, plays the kind of lawyer everyone would like to have and usually things turn out well for his clients.

This week it was an innocent man accused of a hit-and-run auto death, and it worked out to a very nice courtroom climax.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM PHILLIPS

The Nazarene Church of Hope was the setting for the wedding of Miss Sharon Gail Morehead and William A. Phillips on November 18. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morehead of Bodcaw and the late Mr. and Mrs. Earnest A. Phillips of Little Rock.

The Reverend John Hoffman officiated in the double ring ceremony. Two baskets of white gladioli were placed at the altar, and the pews were marked with bows of wide white ribbon accented with green fern.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William Morehead of Magnolia, was attired in a street length dress of white knit with chiffon sleeves. Her veil was a white bridal bow of velvet with a shoulder length illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of white mums centered with a yellow throated orchid.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Eva Jane Morehead as matron of honor. Her street length dress of light blue bonded crepe was of an empire style. Her headpiece consisted of a light blue velvet bow with a short net illusion. She carried a nosegay of yellow mums.

Cecil House of Little Rock served as best man. Charles Morehead and Gary Morehead were ushers.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Little Rock where the groom is employed.

Handwriting in the Dust

DEAR HELEN:

My wife needs a few lessons in housework. She's a great cook, but she figures the cleaning can't keep until Saturday when we're both home from work.

The other night I got in a few minutes before she did, and being diplomatic, I wrote in the dust on the dresser, "I love you too!" And that's how the dresser stayed until the weekend.

What would you suggest? — TRYING TO TEACH HER DEAR TRYING:

How about a dust cloth marked "His"?

And use it while your WORKING wife is busy with dinner. —H.

DEAR HELEN: Our son tells me the police have teenage "narcs" (narcotics agents) spotted around at high schools to report on illegal drug deals.

If this is true, how does one get the job and how much does it pay? —PARENT DEAR PARENT:

Our police department tells me there is no such thing as a paid high school-age "narc." The city cannot hire underage employees—especially in the dangerous capacity of informant.

However, says a spokesman for the department, "If a student is concerned, and aware of a heavy drug situation, he can reveal the name of the dealer—without giving his own name—by calling the Vice Detail at police headquarters." —H.

DEAR HELEN: My husband borrowed a truck from work to help move my sister's things stored in our garage. He got no help from her husband, so loaded the stuff

Holiday Cookie Wreath

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

An almost-too-pretty-to-eat cookie wreath begins with a good molasses cookie recipe. For those who do not want to take the time, simply make a batch of cookies. However, even small children will enjoy their part in helping cut-out bells and other motifs for a Molasses Cookie Wreath for a Christmas centerpiece. Arrange the wreath on the dinner table with a few pieces of greenery and other holiday baubles. To keep nibblers away from the wreath for a short time make extra iron-rich molasses cookies and place them near the wreath for eating first.

MOLASSES COOKIE WREATH

1 1/2 cups vegetable shortening
1 cup sugar
1 cup light molasses
1/2 cup boiling water
6 cups all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ginger
1 teaspoon nutmeg
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon allspice

Cream shortening until light and fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar and molasses. Stir in water and remaining ingredients until well-blended. Knead a few times on a floured board just until a smooth ball is formed. Chill dough for 2 hours. Roll out half the dough on a floured board, using a floured rolling pin, to 1/8-inch thickness. Cut out a cardboard holly leaf 2 inches wide and 4 inches long. Cut out leaves and arrange them in a circle on a greased cookie sheet leaving a hole in the center 4 inches in diameter. Roll small balls of the dough and arrange them near the center of the wreath at the bottom of the holly leaves. Roll out remaining dough to 1/8-inch thickness and cut two 1-inch wide strips of dough 5 inches long and shape them into the bows on the wreath. Cut 1 strip 1 1/2 inches long and place this over the joining of the bows. Cut 2 strips 1 1/2 inches wide and 5 inches long and notch one end of each strip. Place these strips at the bottom of the bow to represent the ribbon ends. Roll out remaining dough to 1/8-inch thickness and cut out desired shapes, using a cookie cutter. Bake wreath in a preheated 375-degree oven for 15 minutes or until puffed and lightly browned. Bake cookies for only 7 to 10 minutes. Cool wreath thoroughly before removing from cookie sheet. Outline leaves with prepared frosting. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Iron-rich molasses cookies make cheerful Christmas wreath.

8 Trades in Baseball Involve Super Stars

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The New York Yankees and Texas Rangers traded the first shot before the crack of dawn and by the time the smoke had cleared there was an army of playing talent swapped at the winter baseball meetings.

Such illustrious troops as Frank Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles and Rich Allen of the Los Angeles Dodgers were among 28 players who changed uniforms in eight trades Thursday.

"We've been hesitant to deal Frank Robinson—for four years, we've been hesitant, but we felt that with our outfield depth we could afford it better now," said Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver after shipping Robinson and pitcher Pete Richert to the Dodgers in a six-player deal.

The Orioles received four relative unknowns for a big name outfielder—pitchers Doyle Alexander and Bobby O'Brien, catcher Sergio Robles and outfielder-first baseman Royce Stillman.

The stunning trade prompted an explanation from Weaver.

"I know the names we got are not known now," said Weaver. "But those names will explain themselves in a few years. They look like they will fit into the category of stars."

"What we've done is make a deal to insure our future."

The Dodgers made the pitch for Robinson while parting with the fence-breaking Allen, who moved to the Chicago White Sox for pitcher Tommy John and infielder Steve Huntz.

This is the fourth team in four years for Allen, an outfielder-third baseman who hit 234 home runs in eight major league seasons. Personality conflicts forced his move from the Philadelphia Phillies to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1970.

But manager Chuck Tanner of the Chicago White Sox doesn't expect any difficulties from Allen.

"Richie is a wonderful person and a good friend as well," said Tanner. "The White Sox judge Allen on what he does on the field. I know he's going to make us more exciting next year. He's going to make our good hitters better."

The major leagues, silenced Wednesday after dealing 15 players in two days Monday and Tuesday, broke loose Thursday as the Yankees and Texas made a three-man deal before the sun rose.

The Yanks acquired infielder Bernie Allen for pitchers Terry Ley and Gary Jones.

It was still early morning when the Rangers made a four-for-four deal with the Cleveland Indians—trading Ley, Jones, pitcher Denny Riddleberger and outfielder Del Unser for pitchers Rich Hand and Mike Paul, outfielder Roy Foster and catcher Ken Suarez.

These deals followed in light-like order:

—Texas traded catcher Paul Casanova to Atlanta for catcher Hal King.

—Houston traded first baseman John Mayberry and infielder Dave Grangaard to Kansas City for pitchers Jim York and Lance Clemens.

—Baltimore made the Robinson deal.

—Los Angeles unloaded Allen.

—The Chicago White Sox traded infielder Rich McKinney to the New York Yankees for pitcher Stan Bahnsen.

—Los Angeles sent catcher Tom Haller to the Detroit Tigers for cash and a player to be named at a later date.

The Dodger acquisition of Robinson was the blockbuster, though. The 36-year-old slugger is one of the few men in baseball with more than 500 homers to his credit and is the only player to win the most valuable player award in both the American and National Leagues.

His trade from the Cincinnati Reds to the Orioles six years ago has been the talk of baseball since because the so-called "old man" led Baltimore to two World Series victories and four American League pennants.

An MVP winner with the Reds in 1961 and with the Orioles in 1966, Robinson hit .281 for the Orioles last year. His 28 homers gave him 503 in 16 years.

Allen, 29, batted .296 with 23 home runs and 90 runs batted in for the Dodgers last year.

The White Sox gave up a pretty good pitcher in Tom John to get him. The southpaw had a 13-16 mark with Chicago last season and has won 84 games in seven major league seasons.

Bahnsen, the No. 3 pitcher on the New York staff, had a 14-12 record with a 3.31 earned run average last year. The 26-year-old right-hander has a $552 mark in five seasons. McKinney, who is expected to fill a need at third base for the infield-hungry Yankees, hit .271 last season with eight homers and 46 RBI.

Unser, one of the league's better-known outfielders, hit .255 with nine homers and 41 RBI in 1971.

Thursday's madcap activity brought to 43 the number of individuals involved in trades since the start of the meetings last Monday. A total of 12 trades have been made among 16 teams.

The hectic week-long meetings are expected to wind up today with a joint session of the two major leagues.

Terry Dill Leading at Orlando

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Golf Writer
ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Terry Dill, leading the first round of the $150,000 Walt Disney World Open Golf Tournament by two strokes over Jack Nicklaus, says a back injury four months ago "may be the best thing that ever happened to me."

Dill, a nonwinner in 10 years on the pro tour, closed quickly for a seven-under-par 65 and the first round in dark, drizzly weather Thursday.

It was only the fourth start in as many months for the 6-foot-3 Dill, who held a one-stroke lead over fellow Texan Dave Eichelberger, alone in second with a 66 on the 6,924-yard Magnolia course at the Disney World.

Nicklaus, who shared the pre-tourney favorite's role with Lee Trevino, headed a group of four at 67. The others were former Masters champion Bob Goalby, big Jim Wiechers and longshot Gary Groh.

Eight more were in at 68 as 70 players broke par 72. The group at four under included Dow Finsterwald, Bert Yancey, Grier Jones, Hugh Royer, Chris Blocker, DeWitt Weaver, Dale Douglass and Bob Lunn.

Trevino, complaining that he is tired and putting poorly, had a 70—he called it "two over par on this course"—and Arnold Palmer was obviously disgusted after a 71.

"I just couldn't get anything working," Palmer said.

Dill, an Austin, Tex., resident, said the layoff that was necessary after he tore some muscles in his arm forced him into a new business—golf course architecture.

"It may be the best thing that ever happened to me. I got with some people in my home town and I'm designing this new course, Lost Creek."

"This is what I want to do when I don't play any more, design golf courses. From now on, I'm only going to play about 20 tournaments a year and spend the rest of the time on golf course design."

Dill birdied both of the par fives on the front side, then made his move coming home, playing the back nine in 31. He missed only one green, the 11th—and made birdie there, chipping in from 30 feet.

Hope Girls Lose in OBU Tourney

By BILL MOORE

Associated Press Sports Writer
HOPE, Mo. (AP) — The Hope Ladycats had a very disappointing night of excitement at the Ouachita Baptist Girls Tournament in Arkadelphia last night as they held an early lead, lost it, then regained it to see-saw the score back and fourth for a while, and then fall behind in the final outcome.

With the score knotted at 65 all with 4:15 left in the game, the Ladycats hit late foul trouble, which had been the reign of terror through the whole game, and the Rivercrest Colts took advantage of it for a first round, 77-71, victory over Hope, lowering the Ladies seasonal record to 3-2, for the still young season.

Hope was plagued by foul trouble all night with two fouling out and two others playing on four fouls each. Meanwhile Rivercrest was busy hitting 43 out of 52 free throws for a fantastic 82.7 percentage from the foul line.

Drawing first blood on a layup by Dee Singleton with only 22 seconds gone by the Ladycats quickly pushed out to a 5-0 margin on three consecutive charity shots by Janet McCain. However, the Colts began to jell and Hope soon found themselves with no lead at all and soon falling behind with 1:45 left in the first period.

As Rhonda Watson displayed some fine outside and free throw shooting for the Colts, the Hope offense stalled as only McCain could hit the goal, that being on two free shots, as the Ladycats found themselves trailing while moving into the second quarter, 21-12.

Winning the second period by outscoring Rivercrest, 23-20, the Ladycats went to the dressing room trailing at halftime, 41-35, after cutting the Colt lead to just six points.

At one stretch in the second stanza, McCain hit eight straight points on four field goals to pull Hope within four points with 2:40 left, and with Singleton ac-of Trevino and threatening in the race for the leading money winner's spot, went to the practice tee after his round of 65 that he said was "not too good."

He birdied all four of the par five holes, but had a three-putt bogey on the first hole and was annoyed at missing three greens counting for a field goal and a pair of charity shots with 30 seconds. Hope stayed close and closed to within two points with 46 seconds showing on the clock, before Colt forward Angela Ralph hit two baskets just before the half.

Starting back up in the second half, the Ladycats immediately began to come back and with 4:22 left in the third period after McCain had tied the score up with a two pointer, Betty Rodden put Hope ahead with a driving layup. However, neither team could outscore the other for the rest of the period enough to take a considerable enough lead. So, as the final quarter of play rolled around, Hope found themselves again trailing, 59-56.

Field goals by Singleton and free throws by McCain and Rodden finally added up in knotted the score at 65 all with 4:15 left in the game, but after that Hope hit some bad breaks as turnovers and foul shots gave Rivercrest a 73-65 margin with 1:57 left in the contest.

Quick shooting by Singleton accounted for six points to pull Hope within four, but time just wouldn't allow continuance to the game as Watson sank two free shots with nine seconds to seal the Colt victory.

Leading scorer in the game was Watson of Rivercrest with 42 points, followed by McCain with 36. Singleton getting 29, and Ralph with 22.

Sullivan Thinks Size is Second

NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Sullivan, the Heisman Trophy winning quarterback from Auburn, scoffed at suggestions Thursday he is too short to be successful in pro football and admitted he was disturbed at the criticism generated by his selection.

"I think the fuss bothers me a little bit," said Sullivan, here to accept the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding college football player in the nation. "But there have been quite a few successful quarterbacks—like Fran Tarkenton and Bob Griese—who were just around 6 feet tall."

The concern over Sullivan's height stems from the fact the pro scouts are searching for quarterbacks well over six feet tall. Sullivan is 6-2. Tarkenton, the New York Giants' top quarterback, is 6-foot while Griese, the No. 1 quarterback for the Miami Dolphins, is 6-1.

Likes Dallas, Dolphins, Baltimore

NEW YORK (AP) — In pro football, this is the week before The Week with the only head-to-head to battle among division title contenders sending the Cincinnati Bengals against the Cleveland Browns.

The pick here is the Bengals, coming on strong, to upend the Browns.

Next week's action lists Minnesota-Detroit, Miami-Baltimore and Oakland-Kansas City. But that doesn't take anything away from this week with several key games, including the Monday night clash between Kansas City and San Francisco that will have a direct bearing on two races.

The pick here for that one is the 49ers against a Chiefs' team that appears to be struggling.

Here are all the picks, noting that last week's record was 9-4

Cornhuskers in Hawaii for a Fun Game

HONOLULU (AP) — Top-ranked Nebraska is riding a 21-game victory streak and a 30-game unbeaten record, but Cornhusker Coach Bob Devaney has warned of overconfidence Saturday against the Hawaii Rainbows.

Nebraska and Hawaii met in Lincoln in 1955 and the underdog Rainbows struck for a fourth-period touchdown and held on for a 6-0 triumph.

However, Saturday's contest here at 1 a.m. Sunday, EST, probably will be a replay of the 1954 clash in which the Cornhuskers rolled to a 50-0 shutout.

The Rainbows are 7-3 and, despite playing a college division schedule, last weekend upended major college power New Mexico, 28-21.

Hawaii's offensive punch comes from running back Larry Sherrer, the first Rainbow to rush more than 1,000 in a single season.

Sherrer, who played freshman football at Oklahoma, piled up 113 yards and all four touchdowns against New Mexico to boost his season total to 1,114 yards.

He will be running against one of the nation's stingiest defenses—the Nebraska corps anchored by All-Americans Rich Glover at middle guard and Larry Jacobson at tackle.

The potent Cornhusker offense is spearheaded by running back Jeff Kinney, who's 19 yards shy of the 1,000-yard mark and quarterback Jerry Tagge.

Nebraska is fresh from a 35-31 victory over Oklahoma for the Big Eight title between the country's top two college teams.

Nebraska is paired with Alabama, a recent 31-8 victory over Auburn, in an Orange Bowl contest Jan. 1 that looms as another national championship game.

In a nationally televised (ABC) college game Saturday, Tennessee faces undefeated and fifth-ranked Penn State.

The powerful Nittany Lions lead the country in total offense with an average of 44.3 points per game and also boast a strong defense.

Penn State, which battles Texas in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas Jan. 1, will attempt to lengthen a 15-game winning streak.

One aspect of the game pits two All-Americans—Penn State running back Lydell Mitchell and Tennessee free safety Bobby Majors.

Mitchell has compiled 1,484 yards rushing and 26 touchdowns.

In other games Saturday, Oklahoma is at Oklahoma State, Syracuse is at Miami, Fla., and San Diego State entertains North Texas State.

for a second straight week:

Dallas 27, New York Jets 24—This one gets NBC-TV treatment at 4 p.m., EST, Saturday, with Joe Namath slated to start for the Jets. He showed last week against San Francisco he still can throw that ball, but the NFC East leading Cowboys have more all-around strength.

Miami 24, New England 17—The Dolphins, AFC East leaders with a 9-1-1 record that is the NFL's best, may get caught looking ahead but not enough to lose. Jim Plunkett throwing fewer passes and more interceptions for the Patriots.

Minnesota 27, San Diego 7—The Vikings, 9-2 and NFC Central leaders, will shut off the Chargers' explosive offense while the 10 members of the offensive unit—plus who ever the quarterback is—punch out enough points to win comfortably.

Baltimore 35, Buffalo 20—The Colts, second in AFC East, seem to be putting it together offensively now behind Johnny Unitas. The Bills have won their first, but it came against New England and is no recommendation for a victory over the defending Super Bowlers.

Detroit 31, Philadelphia 14—The Lions, second in NFC Central, are roaring down the home stretch just as they did last year when a closing winning streak carried them to the NFC playoffs. Eagles' punchless on offense.

San Francisco 24, Kansas City 20—The Monday night TVer, ABC, 9 p.m., EST, sends the AFC runner-up Chiefs against the NFC West leading 49ers. San Francisco relying on running, and the Kansas City front four isn't what it used to be.

Cincinnati 28, Cleveland 24—The Bengals, like the Lions, are streaking at the end and looking for a post-season berth as the AFC Central representative. With Virgil Carter back at quarterback they will tumble the Browns.

Oakland 24, Atlanta 17—The Raiders, AFC West leaders, took it on the nose from Baltimore last week and will be looking to take it out on the Falcons in what should be an extremely physical game.

Washington 31, New York Giants 28—Whenever the teams meet, there's offensive fireworks, and this one should prove no different. But the edge here goes to the NFC East runner-up Redskins.

Los Angeles 34, New Orleans 24—The Rams, runners-up in NFC West, will be out to maul the Saints, who have proved extremely unpredictable. The Saints, however, are not in the Rams' class.

Pittsburgh 24, Houston 20—The Steelers, in the battle for the AFC Central title, may find more to handle here than they expect. But they are the better team.

Denver 20, Chicago 14—Neither team has much offense, but the Bears have been limited to a field goal in each of their last two games.

St. Louis 24, Green Bay 17—Not much excitement created here either, but the Cardinals appear to have more weapons.

Arkansas Tech Mentor Named Coach of Year

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Don Dempsey of Arkansas Tech has been named Kodak District 7 College Division coach of the year by the American Football Coaches Association, it was announced Friday by Bill Murray, executive director of the association.

Murray said Dempsey was chosen by a narrow margin over Gil Steinkamp of Texas A&I in the voting of 86 coaches in the district, which includes Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

The selection makes Dempsey one of the eight finalists for national college division coach of the year. The winner will be announced at the association's annual convention Jan. 11-13 in Hollywood, Fla.

Dempsey, 41, a native of Booneville, Ark., has been associated with Tech for 17 years, first as a player, then as a teacher and coach.

His Wonder Boys team this year won the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference crown

N. Carolina Pours It on Rice Owls

By BERT ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Sports Writer
Dean Smith, University of North Carolina coach, and Don Knodel, Rice coach, can take credit for two of the biggest understatements of the young college basketball season.

"Everything went well for us and badly for Rice," said Smith after his Tarheels had opened their campaign with a record-setting 127-69 rout over the Owls Thursday night.

"It is obvious we can do nothing but get better," commented Knodel.

"We knew this could happen," added the Rice Coach, "but hoped it wouldn't. North Carolina deservedly is No. 2 in the nation. They were just a tremendous team tonight."

The No. 1 team, UCLA, winner of the last five NCAA championships, opens its season tonight at home against the Citadel.

Two other members of the Associated Press Top Ten were in action Thursday night. Houston, No. 7, was upset by California 84-81 in double overtime, and eighth-ranked Long Beach State crushed Corpus Christi 91-51.

North Carolina, last season's National Invitation Tournament champion, equalled two school records with its 127 points and 52 field goals against Rice. Both records had been set in a 127-76 romp over Richmond in 1968.

"Rice plays the sort of game that tends to set a fast tempo," explained Smith. "That was why it was such a high scoring game."

Smith also said he was pleased with the performances of two sophomore starters, Robert McAdoo and Bobby Jones. McAdoo scored 17 points and Jones 16. Dennis Wuycik led the Tarheels with 24 points.

Bill Chamberlain, the Most Valuable Player in last season's NIT event, did not play. He was suspended Nov. 24 for with an 11-0 season record which was advanced to 12-0 with a semifinal victory last Saturday in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs.

Tech, ranked No. 1 in the NAIA poll, meets Livingston, Ala., State Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the final playoff game in Birmingham, Ala.

During his five seasons as Tech head football coach, Dempsey has compiled a record of 41-11-2, producing two AIC championships and one co-championship.

Fast Gun Joe to Test Cowboys

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Broadway Joe Namath, the fastest gun in the East, hopes to start his first regular season game since October, 1970 Saturday in Texas Stadium against the surging Dallas Cowboys who are trying to clinch their sixth consecutive trip to the National Football League playoffs. The fact the New York Jets are struggling for a 500 year means little to a sellout crowd of some 65,000 who will be on hand for the nationally televised match.

The combination of the Cowboys fighting for a playoff berth and Namath's appearance kept the town abuzz during the week.

Namath fired three touchdown passes last Sunday in a relief appearance for the injured Bob Davis against San Francisco but he wasn't happy. He said he kept feeling "pressure sometimes when it wasn't there."

Dallas, although it has an 8-3 record and leads the National Conference Eastern Division by a half-game over Washington, hasn't put much pass defense pressure on anybody this year. The Cowboys lead the NFC in failing to run the last win sprint during a workout.

Eric Long's foul shot with 15 seconds to play in the second overtime enabled California to upset Houston. Substitute Harry Brown came into the game midway in the second half for the Bears and scored 13 points, including two baskets that helped overcome a four-point deficit in the second extra period.

Long Beach State burst to a 54-27 halftime lead against Corpus Christi, then scored the first 13 points of the second half and coasted the rest of the way. Ed Ratleff and Lamont King led Long Beach with 21 points apiece.

Meanwhile, Bob Young's 33 points and 14 rebounds paced Rhode Island to an 88-70 victory over Manhattan, and Bob Sherwin's 28 points led Army to a 79-73 triumph over Niagara in a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Other major results included: Southern Methodist 89, Vanderbilt 79; Tulsa 99, Fullerton State 75; Trinity, Tex. 81 Southern Mississippi 61; Texas A&M 96, Texas Wesleyan 72; Oklahoma State 68, Cal Poly 65; Memphis State 108; Missouri-Rolla 66; Western Kentucky 94, Baylor 84; Weber State 93, Augustana, S.D., 68; Loyola of the South 90, Birmingham Southern 67; Temple 70, West Chester State 46; Richmond 58, Belmont Abbey 54, and Colgate 80, Ithaca 72.

Minnesota, 9-2, also could clinch the NFC's Central Division championship—if the Vikings get help. A Minnesota victory over San Diego coupled with a Philadelphia triumph over Detroit, 7-3-1, would make the Vikings division winner for the fourth straight year.

The other division leaders are Oakland, 7-2-2, in the AFC West and Cleveland, 6-5, in the AFC Central.

The three division winners in each conference automatically qualify for the NFL's post-season playoffs leading to the Super Bowl. The second-place team with the best record in each conference also qualifies for the eight-team playoffs.

Tech, Southern State, Victors in AIC Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern State and Arkansas Tech picked up conference victories Thursday night in AIC basketball action.

Southern State, led by Al Flannigan with 24 points, had four men scoring in double figures to defeat Harding College 89-74.

Johnny White contributed 19 points, Harry Hughes had 20 and James Armstrong scored 14 points to pace State. Bill Chism led Harding with 24 points.

Southern State is now 4-0 for the season and Harding dropped to 0-4.

The Wonder Boys picked up their first victory in eight starts Thursday night by defeating UA-Monticello 82-78.

Chuck Davis, who grabbed two key rebounds in the closing seconds to assure Tech the victory, led the Wonder Boys with 22 points. David Combs and Terry Hankton each scored 17 points and Jim Cunningham added 12.

Utah Stars Win Eighth Straight Against Florida

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Utah Stars, the winningest team in the American Basketball Association, licked the Floridians 98-93 Thursday night and streaked to their eighth successive victory.

The Stars now lead the ABA West division with 18 wins against 7 losses.

The Floridians with 11 victories against 15 defeats share the third spot with Pittsburgh in the ABA's east division.

Center Zelmo Beaty's 29 points sparked the Stars' victory.

Beaty pumped in four clutch free throws in six attempts after the Floridians had fought back from a 12-point deficit to an 88-88 tie with 3:27 to play.

Willie Wise and Jimmy Jones had 15 points each for Utah. Mack Calvin led the Floridians with 27 points and Ira Harge outscored Beaty 19-12.

NCAA Okays Benefit Game at Fullerton

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The NCAA has changed its mind and given Fullerton State College permission to schedule an extra football game for the benefit of families of three assistant coaches who died in a plane crash.

Officials of Fullerton and Fresno State colleges announced Thursday that their teams, both with 6-4 records, would meet in the "Mercy Bowl" game the night of Dec. 11 at Anaheim Stadium. The 18-man NCAA Council voted unanimously earlier Thursday to allow the game, reversing a decision of 10 days ago.

The Fullerton State assistant coaches, Joe O'Hare, Dallas Moon and William Hannah, were flying from San Diego to San Luis Obispo to scout an upcoming opponent Nov. 13 when their plane crashed into a mountainside near Santa Barbara. Also killed was the pilot, Ernie Marquette.

Smith Powers Braves to Win

TORONTO (AP) — Towering rookie Elmore Smith can be counted on when the Buffalo Braves are in a pinch.

The 7-foot-1 Smith sparked a fourth quarter rally that powered the Braves to a 109-105 victory over the Baltimore Bullets in Thursday night's only National Basketball Association game.

"I played defensively for most of the game, but when they needed me to get some points, I just went in and got them," Smith said about his 21-point performance.

The Bullets spotted Buffalo an early 6-0 advantage but then grabbed the lead and retained it until Smith accounted for seven points of an eight-point eruption that pulled the Braves ahead to stay in the final frame.

"He made a couple of big plays, a couple of good dunks and that got the team excited," said player-coach Walt Hazzard, who filled in at the helm for ailing Coach John McCarthy.

Mike Davis led the winners with 25 points and Hazzard added 22. Dave Stallworth and Jack Marin scored 21 points each for the Bullets.

The triumph ended a three-game losing streak for the Braves.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB
VD Can Result From Kissing

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.
Dear Dr. Lamb — My friend told me that if you kiss a person on the lips, if he's got a sore on his mouth you can get VD. Is this true?

Dear Reader — that depends upon what the sore is. A chapped lip, a fever blister (cold sore, or herpes simplex) or a fat lip after a football game isn't likely to cause anyone any trouble except for the guy with the lip.

Your friend is correct, however, if the sore on the lip is the early sore that sometimes occurs from an infection with syphilis. Kissing anyone who has the contagious stage of syphilis can result in infection whether or not there is a sore on the lip. All the germ needs for transmission is wet or fluid environment and the moisture in the mouth from saliva is such a vehicle.

Although kissing can transmit disease, more often the disease is transmitted by what comes after the kiss.

Dear Dr. Lamb — I am writing about a five-month-old child cutting teeth. The mother takes whisky and rubs the gums and gives the balance to her undiluted. The child bangs her head on things. Don't you think this is dangerous? Maybe you can enlighten her.

Dear Reader — It is not likely that the whisky will eliminate any bacteria or problems locally where the teeth are. The alcohol in the whisky may act like a mild anesthetic — or not so mild if it is given in significant quantities and often. It doesn't take very much alcohol to affect a five-month-old tot. This practice cannot be recommended on a recurring basis.

Dear Dr. Lamb — We would like to know how apples, rhubarb and other home-grown fruits rate with oranges and grapefruit in vitamin content.

Dear Reader — The two vitamins of greatest interest in these foods are A and C. Oranges have about twice as much vitamin A as apples or grapefruit. They have a little more vitamin C than grapefruit and seven times as much as apples.

Rhubarb has a lot of bulk and yields about one-third the calories found in the same weight of orange sections. The same weight of rhubarb has half as much vitamin A and one-fifth as much vitamin C. Now if you use three times the weight of rhubarb to obtain the same number of calories as in oranges, then you will get more vitamin A and half as much vitamin C from rhubarb as from oranges.

The real champion is tomatoes. They yield half as many calories, more than four times as much vitamin A and half as much vitamin C as the same weight of oranges. If you eat as many calories of tomatoes as oranges then you get the same amount of vitamin C and nearly 10 times as much vitamin A.

North's two-club opening was artificial and forcing. South's two-diamond response was also artificial. In most systems this response is a sort of catch-all but North and South were playing JACOBY MODERN and this two-diamond card denied holding more than three high-card points.

North's three-club rebid showed a club suit as did South's bid of three spades. One of the great advantages of JACOBY MODERN is that the diamond response which denies more than three high-card points allows responder to show a bad suit later on with no fear that partner will take him too seriously.

North might have settled for three no-trump but he liked his hand and showed his four-card diamond suit. South went to five and North continued to slam.

The slam bid wasn't too frightful. South surely had at least four diamonds and it seemed to North there should be some day for six.

North turned out to be right. South held four diamonds plus the most valuable queen of hearts. He won the diamond lead; entered his hand with that heart queen and led a club. West took his ace and led a second trump. South won in dummy; ruffed a club; came to dummy with the spade ace; ruffed another club; ruffed back to dummy; drew the last trump and claimed.

Saw power

It Looks Easy! In no time at all, the solid log is cut clean through. Of course, those who handle this type of saw know the reason for its effectiveness. Behind it is sufficient power and guidance to make it work well. When the power supply is great, and the connection secure, it is easy to get any job done well.

Have you ever stopped to consider the amount of inexhaustible power that could be loosed in your life? If properly channeled, it could transform you. All we need do is tap the power source: God. All we need do is ask Him. He is anxious to rejoin hands with us and turn us into powerful, directed tools for His service.

With Him on our side, the impossible becomes possible. And as long as we rely on Him and earnestly seek to do His will, He will give us the strength and compassion we need to accomplish the job before us. The task is great but the power is ample. Like that saw, all we have to do is be connected to the supply.

So They May See - Proverbs 3:1-16 - So They May Hear

MY SON, FORGET NOT my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:
2. For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.
3. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:
4. So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
5. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
6. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
7. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil.
8. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

HONOUR THE LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:
10. So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
11. My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction:
12. For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.
13. Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.
14. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.
15. She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
16. Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

Price Board Okays More Increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Price Commission officially announced Thursday approval of seven requests for price increases, bringing the total approved so far to 34.

The commission approved the following requests: A 3.2 per cent increase for diesel engines built by Cummings Diesel Engine Co.

A 1.14 per cent increase for marketing research services for the A. C. Nielson Co.

A 2.3 per cent increase in candies made by the Whitman Chocolate Division of Pet. Inc.

A 3.4 per cent increase for electric ranges and refrigerators made by White Consolidated Industries.

A 2.76 per cent increase for lawn and turf equipment made by Jacobsen Mfg. Co., a division of Allegheny Ludlum.

A 2.5 per cent increase for vodka made by the Smirnoff Division of Heublein, Inc., and 2.34 per cent for wines made by Heublein's United Vinters Division.

Nixon Meets with Advisors to Plan Budget

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon settles down today in warm, Florida weather with top budget advisers and briefcases full of statistics to make major decisions on his fiscal 1973 budget.

The chief executive plans a weekend of intensive work, reviewing the budget figures department by department, press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler reported.

He will be deciding whether to accept figures already worked out or to send them "back to the drawing boards" for modifications, Ziegler added.

Nixon has a tough job trying to hold down government expenditures under election year pressures.

The President wasted no time getting down to business. He launched his conferences during the two-hour flight from Washington Thursday night aboard Air Force One.

Here for the budget skull sessions at the bayside Florida White House are George Shultz, director of the Office of Management and Budget; Caspar Weinberger, budget director and deputy chief of the OMB, and John Ehrlichman, Nixon's chief domestic adviser.

Nixon has to present his 1973 budget within 15 days after the 92nd Congress reconvenes January for its second session.

NBC Elects New Chairman

NEW YORK (AP) — David C. Adams will take over as chairman of the National Broadcasting Co. on Jan. 1.

Adams, now executive vice president of NBC, will succeed Walter D. Scott, who will remain as a member of the board of directors.

Julian Goodman continues as president and chief executive officer of NBC.

Adams joined NBC in 1947 as assistant general counsel and was elected a vice president in 1953.

THE LATEST LOOK in the Navy's ship-mothballing techniques resembles a caterpillar. The U.S.S. Betelgeuse, an attack cargo ship in floating storage at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard, is fitted with an inflated plastic cover designed to preserve above-deck equipment.

Cutback in Pep-pill Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has ordered a 40-per-cent reduction in pep-pill production next year, based on another government agency's report which was lost for two months and rewritten at the last minute.

The proposed manufacturing quotas on amphetamines and methamphetamines are designed to curb overproduction and illegal use, the government said.

Of the estimated 3.5 billion pep pills produced annually in recent years, government officials estimate 20 to 50 per cent were diverted into illicit drug traffic.

John E. Ingersoll, director of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, said the 40-per-cent production roll-back was recommended by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

An HEW report prepared for the surgeon general's signature more than two months ago by the National Institute of Mental Health was lost in government channels and surfaced again back at NIMH last week.

Officials of three federal agencies met in a hastily called conference last week to draft a new recommendation to BNDD before 1972 quotas were set for the first time under the 1970 Drug Control Act.

The proposed quotas are a total of 5,870 kilograms of amphetamines and 2,782 kilograms of methamphetamines, which Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said is 70 per cent below what drug companies had requested.

Ingersoll said other factors considered in the quota decision were recent voluntary actions by medical associations to discourage prescription of pep pills for weight control, a sharp drop in demand, a significant downward production trend since new government controls began this year, and "the record of diversion of the drugs into illicit channels as shown by BNDD seizures and arrests."

Barking Back At Those TV Dogs

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO

CROC FIGHTS BACK—Giving the old razberries to TV commercials CROC (the Committee for Rejection of Obnoxious Commercials) is beginning to make a name for itself.

William Bentzin, Ralph Nader-ing the crusade, is marching into battle in full regalia, complete with buttons, banners and bumper stickers. "If we have thousands of people talking, you can bet the agencies and sponsors will be listening. You have to be organized to be effective nowadays," says Bentzin. And his battle cry to unite has not been in vain. He's getting both the moral and financial support of other irate TV viewers who are paying $1 a year fee to join the CROC campaign.

Members will be voting on the most obnoxious commercials of the season. And then the big 10 winners (the dismal worst) will be named. For those who want to bark back at for-the-dogs commercials, more information is available from CROC, Box 1022, Minneapolis, Minn. 55440.

Isaac Hayes

BLACK MOSES—Isaac Hayes, known to his followers as "Black Moses," has moved out of the gold record category. His last four albums, including the current double-record set "Shaft," have all received platinum records. And that's twice as good as gold. Platinum goes for reaching the two-million-dollar sales level.

THE MAYOR'S A MINOR—The recent elections saw some major upsets by the young people, not allowed to vote last year but candidates for office this year.

One of the biggest victories was in Newcomerstown, Ohio, where Ron Hooker, 19, ran as a nonpartisan write-in candidate against four opponents and is now mayor.

From his town, with population of 4,500, Ron collected 1,060 votes while his four opponents together garnered 491 votes. Without campaign funds or formal endorsement, Ron used his own money to take out ads in his local newspaper. His thrifty campaign obviously impressed the people.

Now Ron is in great demand. He'll be appearing on several talk shows as well as What's My Line and To Tell the Truth. Recently he appeared as the key speaker at a youth rally in Duluth, Minn., where he urged the 18-year-olds to register and vote.

Ron is not old enough to drink in his home state, but he says, "It doesn't bother me one way or the other. I'm kind of indifferent on that issue." A bigger problem arises since Ron is a minor and not legally bound to contracts. He would have to have his parents' approval for any legal document he signed . . . in his private life that is. As mayor he has full rights and obligation of the office, so he doesn't need his parents' signature when acting as mayor.

"I kind of wear two hats, one of a college student and one as mayor," says Ron. And as a junior at Ashland College, Ron doesn't seem to be having any problems with the other students or the teachers. Everyone seems pleased with his victory. No one minds having the mayor in class with them.

Buffalo Sabres Down LA Kings in NHL Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gerry Meehan's first goal in over a month accomplished a lot in National Hockey League action Thursday night.

It started Buffalo on its way to a 2-0 triumph over the Los Angeles Kings, ended the Sabres' 10-game winless streak and helped goalie Roger Crozier register his first shutout of the season.

In Thursday's other NHL contest, Philadelphia and Detroit battled to a 1-1 tie.

Eddie Shack notched the insurance goal for Buffalo at 14:02 of the final period on a lead pass from Gil Perreault. Meehan's score—his first since Oct. 30—was set up by Steve Atkinson in the opening period.

The Kings bombarded Crozier but the goalie registered 31 saves, 14 in a torrid final period.

Gunmen on Spree Leave One Dead

SIMMESPORT, La. (AP) — Two heavily armed gunmen killed one man, kidnaped two policemen and wounded two other persons during a crime spree involving a robbery, high speed chases and shootouts in rural eastern Louisiana, authorities reported.

Bloodhounds and a state police helicopter were called into service as authorities continued the search for the gunmen today.

"They're desperate and they'll kill anybody," said Sheriff F. D. Didier of Avoyelles Parish.

Authorities said the gunmen were armed with .45-caliber pistols, shotguns, submachine guns and a rifle.

The crime spree began Thursday night when the gunmen broke into the home of C. R. Laborde, a retired farmer who lives near Bordelonneville. They tied up Laborde, his wife and two children and fled with $740, the family car, a shotgun and a rifle.

At Mansura, policemen halted the fleeing bandits, but the gunmen captured officers Addis Fruge and Douce Jacobs and took them hostage in their patrol car.

The first shootout took place when a police unit from Bunkie caught up with the gunmen. Fruge and Jacobs escaped during the gunfire but the gunmen escaped and made it to Evergreen.

At Evergreen, authorities said they killed a man tentatively identified as Thomas Matthews, wounded his wife and fled in the family car.

Johnny Wilmore, a Cheneyville policeman, picked up the pursuit, was hit in the chest by a shotgun blast. He was not seriously hurt and stayed in the chase.

About 25 police cars continued the chase out of Evergreen. Five cruisers lost the gunmen, who shot out the windows of two other police cars. Another cruiser stopped because of a burned-out engine and two others went careening into ditches when the fleeing men threw out smoke bombs that hampered visibility, authorities said.

Fires at Feet of Prisoner

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Joe Lewis, 26, a civilian tower guard at Cummins Prison Farm testified Thursday that, under orders, he shot at the feet of Willie E. Stewart, 17, of Little Rock when the youth was brought to the prison Monday morning to serve a one-day sentence.

Stewart died at the end of the day at the prison.

Dr. Rodney Carleton, state medical examiner, said the youth died of a form of sickle cell anemia.

Autopsy Reveals Anemia Caused Death of Youth

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Rodney Carleton, state medical examiner, testified here Thursday that a variety of sickle cell anemia caused the death Monday of a youth at Cummins Prison Farm.

The youth was Willie Stewart, 17, of Little Rock, who was serving a one-day sentence for car theft from Faulkner County at Cummins when he collapsed and died a short time later.

Carleton said an autopsy showed two abnormal hemoglobins, S and C, in Stewart's blood. He said this disease was not sickle cell but was "a first cousin to it."

Carleton said such a condition was "known to cause sudden and precipitous death."

Carleton also said the autopsy showed that Stewart had two slight bruises on his chest and a slight cut on the inside of his upper lip. Carleton said there was no evidence of drugs in the youth's body.

The medical examiner's testimony came before U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley during a hearing on what progress had been made at the state prisons since he ordered conditions there must be brought up to constitutional standards.

Two more Cummins officials testified Thursday concerning the case of Stewart.

Reggie Fletcher, a civilian guard, said he picked Stewart up at the main gate Monday morning and that he made Stewart job down to the road for about 100 yards toward the tower guard. He said the guard fired a shot. Fletcher said he then got out of his car and told the guard to "knock it off."

Fletcher also said that all one-day wonders were made to jog from the main gate to the tower.

Michael Hawk, who is in charge of field operations and cell anemia. Lewis said he was ordered to shoot near Stewart's feet to scare the youth.

Lewis said he received a call from the front gate when Stewart arrived and that the caller "told me to make some noise and scare him a bit."

Stewart was run from the game to the tower, Lewis said. He said he fired a shot at Stewart's feet.

The witness said he did not know the name of the person who called him with the order. "I didn't question it," Lewis said. "I just do it and I ain't the first one, either."

He said he knew that every "one-day wonder" is shot at in the manner Stewart was "to scare them."

Lewis said that when he first became a tower guard that Bill Carter, his supervisor, told him to shoot at the feet whenever a "one-day wonder" came through.

A one-day wonder is prison parolee for a youthful first-offender who is sent to the prison for a one-day term.

Lewis also testified that he was ordered Wednesday night not to let Elton E. Ballentine, 27, special services coordinator at Cummins until his recent resignation, past the tower.

"I'm not going back there after the way they treated Ballentine last night," Lewis said.

Lewis' testimony came before U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley in a hearing on what progress has been made in the prisons to bring them up to constitutional standards.

Two more Cummins officials testified Thursday concerning the case of Stewart.

Reggie Fletcher, a civilian guard, said he picked Stewart up at the main gate Monday morning and that he made Stewart job down to the road for about 100 yards toward the tower guard. He said the guard fired a shot. Fletcher said he then got out of his car and told the guard to "knock it off."

Fletcher also said that all one-day wonders were made to jog from the main gate to the tower.

Michael Hawk, who is in charge of field operations and generally oversees the one-day inmates who are sent to the prison, said Stewart had been assigned to a protective custody squad and that they walked about a quarter of a mile to where they were to clean weeds away from a fence line.

Hawk said he observed Stewart throughout the day but had no reason to suspect that Stewart might be sick.

Hijackers of Plane Demand Medicine

By JOHN VINOCUR

PARIS (AP) — Air pirates took over a Pakistan International Airlines plane today and threatened to blow it up unless a ransom of 20 tons of medicine was delivered for Pakistan refugees.

Officials at Orly Airport, where the plane was seized, said arrangements were being made to supply the medicine in order to safeguard passengers.

The plane was en route from London to Pakistan.

The airline's London office said the hijackers first ordered the jet to Beirut, Lebanon.

Orly police said 28 persons were aboard, but the airline in London reported 16 passengers and 6 crewmen.

The hijackers seized the plane in the name of Bangla Desh, Pakistani guerrilla movement.
